Racehorse Adoption Program

Mission

To stand in the gap for noncompetitive, often injured racehorses providing a peaceful environment and skilled hands to assist in their development as pleasure mounts. To place these horses in experienced loving homes that will continue their education so each has a skill and therefore, a future.

- 6 facilities in Ohio, Kentucky, Pennsylvania, Michigan, and Tennessee
- Service over 30 different racetracks
- 60 horses in the program on any given day
- Received 489 horses in 2011 and adopted 429

New Vocations Adoption Process

Rehab/Transitional Training

Horses are rehabilitated and receive transitional training for a new career

Over 400 horses a year

Screening & Educating Applicants

Careful screening including veterinary and personal references, helps ensure horses are placed in qualified homes. Ongoing support and education is offered to adopters

500 applications
processed annually

Marketing & Promoting Each Horse

Horses are promoted with quality videos and photographs along with a professional evaluation and description

3 million hits a year on website

Monitoring Adopted Horses

Three written updates and photos are required during the first 12 months of adoption to ensure a successful transition

Over 400 horses a year

The Costs

- It costs New Vocations $1,000-$2000 to retrain, rehome, and follow up on a horse.
- If the horse needs rehabilitation time the cost increases to $2500-$3500 per horse.
